

Press Release

For immediate release (Longmont, Colorado 05/01/2008): Sangat Precision Machining & Grinding Continues its Commitment to Excellence by Attending the World's Premiere Machine Tool Show.

Longmont-based Sangat Precision Machining & Grinding is pleased to announce that the company leadership will be attending the International Machine Tool Show (IMTS) in Chicago, running from September 8 to September 13, 2008. Attending IMTS is important to Sangat Precision as doing so facilitates and continues a company tradition of excellence and emphasis on leveraging state-of-the-art equipment in order to provide premium quality and service. "We place emphasis not only on staying informed of the state-of-the-art in machining equipment, but also on understanding how technological advances can impact and enhance our ability to deliver the best in precision machining services to our clients," said James Ray, President and CEO of Sangat Precision. "We are absolutely committed to delivering the best possible services for our clients."

IMTS 2008 is the 27th edition of the premier manufacturing technology show in North America. More than 1,500 exhibiting companies will occupy 1.2 million net square feet of exhibit space at the McCormick Place complex in Chicago, Illinois. IMTS is held every even-numbered year in Chicago and attracts more than 91,000 buyers and sellers from 119 countries.
